Read the passage carefully. Then answer all 5 questions using details from the text.

The Rolling Library Cart

Noah helped the librarian push a rolling book cart into his classroom.

The cart held picture books, animal stories, poems, and simple science books.

Ms. Chen asked each child to choose one book for quiet reading.

Noah selected a story about a clever fox crossing a shallow stream.

He sat near the window because the morning light was bright there.

A paper bookmark helped him remember the page when the bell rang.

Before lunch, Noah returned the story to the second shelf of the cart.

The librarian thanked him for leaving the cart neat for the next class.
