A Map for the Nature Trail

Sofia's class walked along a nature trail behind the community center.

Each team carried a clipboard, a pencil, and a blank sheet of grid paper.

Sofia drew the wooden bridge near the bottom of her new map.

Her partner Malik marked a tall pine tree with a green triangle.

They used a blue wavy line to show the narrow stream beside the trail.

A bench halfway along the path became their most useful landmark.

Back in class, the team added a compass rose pointing north.

Their finished map helped another group follow the trail without missing a turn.
