The Scarf on the Fence

Mateo noticed a purple scarf hanging on the fence after recess.

He carried it carefully to the school office instead of leaving it outside.

The secretary placed the scarf in a clear lost-and-found box.

Mateo wrote a short notice without naming the scarf's color.

During afternoon announcements, the principal described where it had been found.

A fourth-grade student named Ava came to the office before dismissal.

Ava identified a tiny silver star sewn near one end of the scarf.

Mateo felt glad that a simple helpful choice returned the scarf to its owner.
